LOCAL NEWS

SERENADES. - "Now let the band play." In the beautiful moonlight the Alexandria Brass Baud, last night, serenaded several prominent coliticians and citizens. Their musical renditions have lately become quite popular, and their energy and success deserves appreciation. The first gentleman serenaded was Mr. George L. Simpson, member elect to the House of Delegates, but the sweet and dulect sounds were in vain to awaken a response, that gentleman being absent at the time. Next Col. M. D. Ball was made the recipient of the compliment of a musical treat, which again failed to elicit any response, save an unexpected shower of that p culiar fruit, by the plucking of which Adam fell, the donor expressing regret at not being provided with a sufficient quantity of the distilled fruit for the entertainment of his visitors. The "serenaders" next proceeded to the residence of Capt. William H. Fowle, also member elect of the House of Delemanner. Three cheers were given for the new on Monday, the 22d inst., at 1 30 p. m. friends are earnestly pushing him for the vacant seat of Capt. Fowle in the Common Council. Here they were again entertained, after which the serenaders hem ward wended their way by the light of the "silver shining moon."

CHRIST CHURCH. - The Bedford Sentinel of yesterday says: Rev. Henderson Suter, for some years rector of St. John's Episcopal borhood. Church, of this place, has received a call to Christ Church, Alexandria, and has taken the matter into serious consideration. This call is a deserved compliment to Mr. Suter, who, in the short time he has been here has gained the good opinion, respect and love of our entire community. Mr. S. is a man of decided ability, and one of most sterling worth, and it would be a great misfortune to lose such a man, from our midst. Christ Church is one of the oldest and most venerated churches in our State, and is almost hidden from view by centennial ivy. One enteriog within its sacred walls is carried back to colonial times. It is said that the seat occupied by George Washington when a member of this church has remained just as it was when he occupied it a century ago. [Mr. Suter, as heretofore stated in the Gazette, has declined the call. Rev. Dr. McKim will preach his last sermon as rector of Christ Church to-morrow night, as heretofore stated, but the discourse will not be of the character usually denominated a farewell

WARD NEETINGS. - The Conservatives will hold meetings in the 2d, 3d and 4th wards tonight to nominate candidates for seats in the City Council, made vacant by recent resignations. In the 4th ward but little interest is excited, and it is thought that Mr. Beach, who has been nominated by the Radicals, will have no opposition, but in the 2d and 3d wards the stores. case is entirely different, the numerous supporters of Mesers. Eichberg and Beckham in the 3d being actively engaged in electioneering for their respecting favorite, and a closely contested canvass is expected there; while in the 2d Mr. Strauss' friends are doing all they can to secure his nomination. The Conservatives have large majorities in the two last named wards, and it is not thought probable that the Radicals will have candidates in those wards, but Mr. Louis Stein will run as an Independent

POLICE REPORT -The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon:

FOURTH WARD RADICALS. - A meeting of the Fourth ward Radicals was held last night at the coloted Odd Feilows Hall, on south Columbus street, Mr. Edward Hughes in the 13th instant, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of chair, and T. B. Pinn secretary. The chair nominating candidates to be voted for on Tues-having stated that the object of the meeting day, the 16th instant, to fill vacancies in the City was to nominate a candidate for the Board of Aldermen to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of John A. Seaton, the name of S. Ferguson Beach, esq. .. was proposed, and there being no other name offered, that gentleman was unanimously nominated, and the meeting adjourned, after a duration of not more than five minutes. Oysters.-The dozen raw sent to the OYSTERS.—The dozen raw sent to the local" room in this office, from the packing Sumac Wanted nonse of McLean & Co., at lunch time to day, were as delicious as oysters could be, and as there are a few more of the same sort where they came from, those who have not laid in their Sunday's supply will know by this notice where to find them.

P. Church, at the afternoon meeting.

OVERBOARD. - Captain Robert Porter of the canal boat Samuel Swain, lying at the docks of the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal company, while carrying a sack of salt from the wharfon board of that boat yesterday afternoon, slipped and fell into the dock, the sack of salt, however, falling on the boat and remaining there, He was speedily rescued by two of his boatmen, who witnessed the accident.

EXCELLENT NOMINATION. - As will be seen by reference to another item in this column of to-day's Gazette that Mr.S. F. Beach was nominated for the Board of Aldermen by the Fourth ward Radicals last night. This is an excellent nemination, and it will probably be endorsed hold their meeting to-night.

THE MARKET. - Considering the season the market was unusually well supplied with provisions this morning, and the attendance of both sellers and buyers was large. Among the tempting array of articles of food displayed there was quite a large quantity of game-rabbits, squirrels, opossums, partridges, &c., which, however, sold at high figures.

THE CHAIN GANG .-- The chain gang now consists of seventeen members-a larger number than have been on the force for sometime past, As the ground on which the gang has to work is extensive, one man cannot well supervise operations, so a detail has to be made from the police force to assist Capt. Dillon.

PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT. -Sheridan & Mack's, Mimiques, a brilliant company of musical artists, will give one of their entertainments at Sarepta Hall to-night, This troupe is spoken cuting the inquiry if they decided to enter of in the highest terms of praise by the papers of the cities in which they have appeared. Plymouth Church. NEW YORK, Nov. 13 .-- Mrs. Emma C. Moul too has served a paper addressed to the members of Plymouth Church on Thomas G. Sherman, Clerk of the Church, in regard to her his rooms and neglected to inform the family. ber summons by the examining committee, and ill, is considered out of danger. her reply at the time, she says: "Notwith-standing this protest, and after it had been read, the members of the church present adopted the recommendation of the committee and dropped my name from the church roll without considering the sufficiency of my reasons for being absent from the sacrament-; without arraigning me for any unjust accusations against the pastor, and without giving me a card of dismission to any other church. I am, therefore, so far as your action can do it, deprived of a standing in the Church of Christ, as it seems to me without fault on my part, and certainly without any proper trial by you. I cannot feel that this is right, and I ask you to join with me in calling a council of churches, before which you may state your reasons for your action, and I may state mine, and which shall impartially judge between us. I am one and you are many, but I believe in God and His justice, in Christ and His kingdom. I am quite ready to be properly rebuked by such a council, if I ought to be, for not attending your services and sacraments, while I certainly desire that my Christian character and standing in the church should be vindicated and restored if that is right. If you do not notify me of your consent to join with me in calling such a council within four weeks I shall understand that you decline to do so, and that I must proceed to ask a council myself to consider these matters, which are of such great by the Conservatives of that ward, who will importance to me and to those to whom my good name is dear. A NEVADA ANGEL. - The Virginia Chronicle says: Last week will be memorable in the happiness to board at a restaurant on Main street. In this restaurant employed as a waitress, is a good-looking young woman. For reasons not known to the outside world the miner in question has allowed his tongue to wag somewhat freely upon the subject of this woman's character. She heard the gossip and learned its source, and on Wednesday evening of last week, just as the miner had relieved the agony of the restaurant man, finishing an interminable supper, he received an invitation from the handsome young woman to step into a back room. It was given smilingly, and the scandal monger went unsuspiciously to his fate. She closed the door, and in reply to the questioning look drew a six-shooter from her pocket, and requested him to get down on his knees. Being an obliging fellow, he did so instantly. and there he cheerfully confessed that he was a liar, and that the fair damsel before him was in all respects considerably superior to most angels. She let him go then, and there isn't a more taciture man in Gold Hill now than that miner.

At a Kentucky dinner, and between the sherry and champagne, to which period the enfant terrible of the family had been unfortunately permitted to linger, the host had gone certainly an evidence of its intoxicating qualities: "That sherry, sir, cost me $60 a de zen. I bought it at the auction of the Emperor Napoleon's wines, and imported it myself."
"Why, papa," interrupted the enfant, "that was all gone long ago, and mamma filled the bottles up from that California keg. She said you never had any friends who could tell the difference.
